Twin Towns 1; Augusta 0

One of the best and tightest games thus far at Oxford County fair grounds. Twin Towns won this second battle in the series of ten games with the Capitol City outfit and made it on the narrowest possible margin. Keville scored the only tally the last of the fifth.

Augusta Millionaires made a drive in the sixth which nearly sent them over the top. After two were gone, three safeties set runners in motion. "Squants" Wilson, who attempted to score from second was declaimed out at the plate and an intensive argument involving the player and Umpire Tilton followed. The decision was final and closed this busy inning.

Augusta never again came within scoring distance as the Twins played tight baseball along the whole front.

Farmer Hunt officiated in the box for Twin Towns and was touched freely, clean cut fielding behind was the general rule.

Don Brennan worked smoothly on the mound for Augusta, holding the Twin Town sluggers to four singles. Only one misplay was charged to the visitors. The score:

Augusta 5; Twin Towns 4

The Twins went against hard luck at the Lewiston Tourney Saturday forenoon, being eliminated in the race for the big purse in the finals. Augusta with the stick and assisted by Kroogs wilders, landed a four run lead. The Twins fell heavily on Williams in the seventh after two were out and tied the score. Nothing happened on chalking points until the tenth, although chances for both to score were rudely punctured. Ed. Loud of the Twins was the high striker, securing four safeties from five chances. Carl Fuller was spiked but continued in the game for a time after his wounds were dressed.

Farmer Hunt relieved Kroog in the seventh and hurled steadily until the end. Messenger of the Baltimore International worked in the left garden for the Twins and was lead off man in the batting order. The score:

Twin Towns 7; Lewiston 4

Twin Towns went after the Lewiston Star Taxis at Lewiston, Monday afternoon and won. The game featured timely hitting by the Twins and costly errors against Del Bissonette's followers.

Benson officiated as moundsman for the Twins and handled the pill in a clever manner. He allowed six hits, fanned ten, passed two, and accomplished good work with the stick.

Ruff officiated three innings for the Taxis but his arm was not working well, he retired in favor of Quinn.

Carl Fuller was out of the line-up, owing to injuries to his ankle at the tourney and Kenney upt up a speedy article at short. Messenger, a strong hitter and lead off man, played left field for the Twins.

Owing to the lay of the field, the sun's position late in the afternoon is bad for catchers, batters and umpire. In this game hitting was guess work especially in the last three innings, because of the dazzling rays. Both catchers worked at a disadvantage but escaped with no serious marks.

The fifth session was a bargain counter for Twin Towns. Masterman landed on first after a wide throw; Kirschtein sacrificed; Keville and F. Loud walked; Benson rapped smartly into left, scoring two runners; Messenger's scratch to Bissonette and Gaudette's error allowed runners to cross, making four tallies for that inning. Single scores came through in the sixth, seventh, and eighth as a result of timely hitting.

The Taxis also fell into pie during their sixth time up. Bissonette opened the fun when Messenger dropped his fly; Gibson beat out a hit to second; Wolf walked, filling the bases. Bissonette scored on Hammond's single to left. Hammond collided with F. Loud who dropped the ball, allowing Gibson to cross safely. A pair of stars capered over the home pan on Quinn's short hit. Four runs, the first, last and only for the Lewistons, were recorded in this spectacular inning.

Solon H. Downing

After a long period of failing health, Solon H. Downing passed away suddenly at his home, 7 School Street, Saturday afternoon. His age was 68 years. Heart trouble is given as the cause of his death.

He was born in Oxford, May 17, 1854, the son of Silas and Ann Frye Downing and always resided in that town. Mr. Downing moved his family to Norway some five years ago after selling his farm at East Oxford and buying the Phineas Curtis stand on School street. For a time he was connected with the Norway Market, but failing health caused him to retire from heavy work. Vegetable gardening and general work occupied his time until within a year.

He was twice married, his first wife being Linda McGlinch of New Gloucester, now deceased. Two children by this marriage survive, Mary Downing of Norway and John Downing of Virginia City, Montana. The second wife was Lizzie E. Beck, who survives with four children: Ruth, wife of Fred C. Gammon of Portland; Wilbur S. Downing of Norway; Helen, wife of Giles M. George of Hebron, and Elizabeth Downing, who lives at home. He leaves one brother, George P. Downing of Norway and Auburn, and one sister, Miss Adelia L. Downing of Winter Hill, Mass., and three grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the home at 2 P. M., Tuesday, the Rev. J. H. Little of Bethel officiating. The bearers being the son, Wilbur S. Downing, two sons-in-law, Fred C. Gammon and Giles M. George and a nephew, Harry F. Downing. Interment in the family lot at East Oxford.

Make Dams Safe

During the past few weeks we have passed through another of the "scares" which come about every so often when the clouds open up and the rains descend in torrents for days and weeks at a time—the main fear being that one of the three dams either at Pennesseewassee Lake, Hobbs' Pond, or North Pond might go out and cause all kinds of trouble.

Our last scare was in regard to North Pond dam. Pennesseewassee Lake could take care of what water there was there but could not take care of a surplus.

We have these freshets every few years and the question is raised why not fix these dams as soon as the water lowers and put them in shape so that it will be a positive fact that they will endure during the next high water. Much anxiety could be avoided if it was known that the dams were safe.

Mrs. Lois A. Downing

Mrs. Lois Ann Downing died at the home of her son, Roy Downing, at Mechanic Falls, July 6th. Mr. Downing and his mother moved there from Minot about ten months ago. She had not been well but had been able to be out and on the street. Mrs. Downing was 78 years of age.

She was the widow of the late Nathan T. Downing of Minot. Mrs. Downing is survived by two sons, Roy of Mechanic Falls and Clarence of Norway, and a sister in Wayne.

The boy went down in five feet of water and was coming up under the wharf when rescued. Capt. Sampson acting quickly reached nearly three feet under the surface and grasped the struggling lad before the child was carried under the float. The captain offered some good advise and sent the chap home for dry clothing.

Early last winter Capt Sampson dragged the same boy from a hole in the ice near the Advertiser office. The youngster with a sled broke through into deep water and but for some quick thinking and acting would have lost his life. SOUTH PARIS

Hike to Thompson's Pond

Monday morning, Troop 1 B. S. A. of South Paris gathered in front of Chas. Howard's store in readiness for camping. There were twenty boys in all with Ronald Perham in charge. The troop was in full uniform and "full of pep". Everyone travelled on foot with full pack—the pack being considerable "fuller" at the end of seven and a half mile hike.

The Scouts "hit camp" on Greeley Brook around noon and made active use of that glorious period. After dinner everyone went in swimming. Out of the twenty fellows, only one was unable to swim. The special feature of the trip was the Two Athletic Meets with scores 19-18 and 17-6. Every scout took part and it proved a wild time. Lloyd Cutting, Harry McGinley and John Chandler passed several scout requirements and several other scouts took practice tests in outdoor cooking.

On Tuesday P. M. the scouts "broke camp" and "hit for home" and the cries of "when are we going again" proved that everyone was satisfied with the trip. Outdoor life of this sort is the best thing a boy can get next to and to deprive him of the chance is to take a way the cleanest and best experiences of his boyhood days. Boys will be boys wherever they are but they never reach their best until they learn to count Mother Nature in her own country.

The remains were taken to Mechanic Falls where services were held Monday at 2:30 p. m. Burial at Maple Grove Cemetery.

Miss Anna P. Morse

Miss Anna Parsons Morse died at her home on Oxford Street, Thursday, July 6 after an illness of several weeks due to a shock of paralysis.

She was the daughter of Deacon Elisha and Ann G. (Parsons) Morse, and was born July 20, 1855.

She had always lived at the Morse homestead, and had taken an active interest in whatever was accomplished for the betterment of the village. She was a charter member of Mount Pleasant Rebekah Lodge and a past grand; also has been a regular attendant of the Congregational Church.

Two brothers survive, Charles Morse of Minneapolis, Minn., and Alfred E. Morse of South Paris with whom she lived.

The funeral was Sunday afternoon attended by Rev. E. A. Morris, and the interment at Riverside Cemetery.

Town Will Build Two Bridges

At a special town meeting held Saturday in Association Hall, $10,120.00 was appropriated to rebuild bridges over Moose Pond Brook and Andrews Brook. Treasurer was authorized to borrow that amount, same to be assessed yearly at the rate of $2,000.

A reinforced concrete slab bridge with a twenty-foot span in the clear was recommended for the Moose Pond Brook bridge. At the Andrews Brook a reinforced concrete T-beam bridge with a thirty-foot span is considered desirable. The last named bridge will be located below the present one.

The article relative to extending the sewer from High street up Gothic street to the residence of Charles O. Barrows was lost by a negative vote. Walter L. Gray was moderator.

Rev. E. A. Morris and Edward Green hiked to Streaked Mountain one day recently for exercise and the extended view.

Cole & Durgin are settled in their new public garage a little north of Park street bridge with William Richardson as mechanic.

A town ball team has been organized with local and college players in the line-up. They recnetly defeated a team in Bethel with a comfortable margin. All practicing is on the high school diamond.

The driver backed away and started again, but the pesky machine bolted and plunged its face into the opposite bank for a long rest. Some hours later the cripple was removed to a local auto hospital for treatment.

Mrs. E. N. Haskell and children have returned home after visiting several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Jewett at Denmark.

Perfect Confidence

Norway People Have Good Reason for Complete Reliance

Do you know how—
To find relief from backache;
To correct distressing urinary ills;
To assist weak kidneys?
Your neighbors know the way—
Have used Doan's Kidney Pills;
Have proved their worth in many tests.

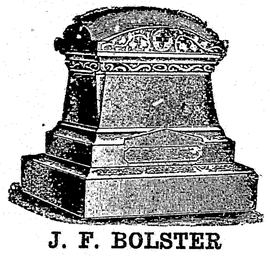

Here's Norway testimony.

Mrs. Myrtie Payne, 237 Main St. says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and am thoroughly satisfied they are a dependable remedy. I had more or less pain across my back and kidneys which annoyed me when stooping or lifting. I found Doan's Kidney Pills good for the trouble and after I used this remedy the pains lessened. I have been practically free from the trouble since taking Doan's and feel they deserve my recommendation." (Statement given June 7, 1916.)

On September 3, 1920, Mrs. Payne said: "The statement I made still holds good. I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as highly today as I have during the several years past. The great good they did me has lasted and my faith in Doan's has remained firm."

Works of Lightning

The lightning struck A. M. Whitman's house Saturday afternoon during the heavy shower and burned the telephone wires entered the large dish cupboard in the dining room breaking a great many dishes, then went into the water box in the pantry bursting that, broke 2 windows and tore out some doors and some other damage but did not set any fire. It tore down several rods of the wire fence just a short distance from the house. It was only a short time ago that they lost all their household goods by fire so it was quite a loss to them to lose so many dishes besides the other damage.

The Wentworth Poultry Fountain

(Patent Applied For)

We have recently perfected and are now offering a new fountain or watering system known as THE WENTWORTH POULTRY FOUNTAIN. It has been developed with the idea of lessening the spread of diseases through the drinking of contaminated or impure water. The fountain or main body of water is entirely separate from the drinking vessel. Water is automatically drawn from the fountain and maintained at any predetermined depth in the drinking vessel. It will thus be seen that it is impossible for the main body of water to become contaminated, for it does not come in direct contact with water in the drinking vessel. The object, therefore, of the fountain is to automatically supply fresh pure water as required by the birds, and its advantages are as follows:

FIRST—The Drinking Vessel being separate from the main body of water, may be rinsed or disinfected at will without interfering with the fountain or main water supply.

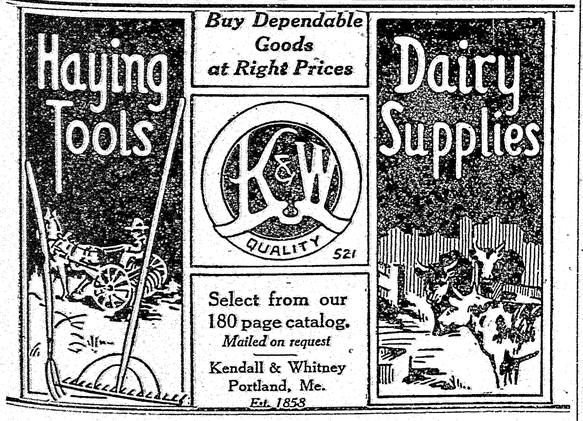

SECOND—There are no float valves, air tight caps, or anything of the sort to get out of order. Its construction is simple; its operation is positive and pleasing.

THIRD—It is durable—will last a lifetime, and is inexpensive.

Every story is old to the person who doesn't want to listen.

RUMFORD WAR HERO FOUND STARVING

Louis Fedrow claiming a residence in Rumford, was found starving in New York City. The police discovered the unconscious man in a park without protection from the pelting rain. He was taken to the police station and locked up, charged with vagrancy. A careful examination revealed the fact that man was starving and in a critical condition. He was hurried to the Bellevue Hospital and recovery is expected.

According to the story told the authorities, he enlisted at Rumford and served in the 103rd Inf., 26th Div.; was cited for gallantry while under shell fire at Brest and was awarded the Distinguished Service Medal. He returned to the States suffering from the effects of wounds, gas poison and shock. Unable to find work after a long search in New York, and too proud to beg he reached the park and remembers nothing more until revived at the station.

The American Legion Post at Rumford has taken up the matter and funds will be sent the unfortunate hero.

FRYEBURG

Steadman-Walker

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Walker, Oxford street, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at 3 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, July 1st, when their youngest daughter, Emily Stone Walker, was united in marriage to Donald Melville Steadman of Portland. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Louis A. Dole, pastor of the Church of the New Jerusalem. Owing to the recent illness of the bride's mother, the marriage service was a quiet home wedding with only the immediate families as guests, and there were no attendants. The bridegroom's present to the bride was a gold wrist watch. She was very becomingly attired in a traveling suit of blue with a hat to match.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. Nathaniel and Mrs. Addie (Chadborune) Waker of Fryeburg. She received her education in the schools of her native town and is a graduate of Fryeburg Academy and of the Normal School at Gorham. She has been a sucessful teacher in the schools of Lovell and South Paris.

Mr. Steadman is a native of New Hampshire and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Steadman of East Rochester, N. H. He received his education in the schools of that city and then he entered the University of Maine, where he graduated in the class of 1919. Since his graduation he has been a successful teacher in the academy at St. Johnsbury, Vt., and in the Portland High School. He has also assisted as teacher to Mr. Augustus H. Smith at his camp for boys at Upper Kezar Lake, North Fryeburg. Mr. Steadman has now resigned his position in the Portland High School, and has accepted a position to teach in the High School of Commerce in Springfield, Mass.

After the informal reception during the social hour, delicious refreshments were served to the company; and beautiful cut flowers added to the pleasure of the occasion.

RADIO MARKET SERVICE

The New England Homestead says: For a great many years the weekly market reports in New England Homestead have been depended upon by thousands of farmers to give them reliable information regarding prices and conditions of trade. Neither time nor money has been spared to give readers the desired assistance.

Now with the great possibilities of radio before us, The Homestead is making further investment to supplement this service to our farmers. Arrangements were made whereby daily (except Sunday) market prices and weather conditions will be broadcasted via Westinghouse station at Springfield at 7.45 each evening. These quotations will be prepared by the United States bureau of markets and crop estimates and the Massachusetts department of agriculture, division of markets. Prices quoted will be those prevailing up to 10 o'clock in the morning of the same day that they are broadcasted.

Each day the Boston farmers' produce market covering wholesale prices on fruits and vegetables will be featured. In addition to this on Wednesday evenings a special review will be made on hay and grain and the Brighton live stock market and on each Friday there will be a weekly review giving a picture of the week's activities.

Dressed and live poultry, eggs, maple products and other specialties will be included in the quotations each day. Special attention will be given such special crops as potatoes, apples, tobacco, onions, etc. As available the special reports of V. A. Sanders, the New England crop statistician representing the government, will be broadcasted. Other markets such as Springfield, Worcester and Providence may be included later on.

Another important course of helpful information will be the number of carloads of fruit and vegetables coming from the South passing through the Potomac yards, which is the large railroad junction at Washington, D. C., destined for Boston. This information is of value because it is an indication of what the probable supply in the Boston and New England market will be for any given period. Not only will this service include actual market quotations, but it will also give crop conditions through the season covering acreage and production.

TAXATION AND HIGH COST OF LIVING

Consumers Show Strong Resistance to Recent Inflated Prices

After the farm bloc senators had succeeded in getting a duty of 15 cents a bushel on corn when the tariff bill was before the Senate committee, they were apparently still unsatisfied, for when the agricultural schedule came up on the floor of the Senate they succeeded in raising the duty to 20 cents. During the calendar year 1921 the United States imported 113,000 bushels of corn, while the total domestic production was 3,135,000,000 bushels. Imports fluctuate considerably with changes in prices and variations in yield, but they have never amounted to more than ½ of 1 per cent. of the domestic crop, and are usually much below that amount.

For the calendar year 1921 the United States exported 129,000,000 bushels of corn, or over 1000 times as much as was imported. It is difficult to see, therefore why the Senate should regard the pittance coming into this country as a menace to the welfare of the domestic producer. Corn imports are a mere flash in the pan. It is hard, therefore, to avoid the suspicion that the duty is merely a political sop to the corn belt, after the wheat belt and the grazing sections got their duties on wheat, wool, meats and hides. Yet some people believe that the tariff can be taken out of politics.—Boston Herald.

Senator Wm. E. Borah of Idaho says that people are sick of tax burdens. Discontent is wide spread. That the is paying out a million dollars a day for disabled veterans and in the next twenty years it will cost 65 bilions of dollars. The country is in no condition to pay any bonus. If paid by government securities to be disposed of at moneyed corporations, the soldiers would be compelled to take a discount and speculators would reap big profits.—News Item.

What Canada Needs Today is Lower Taxation

We are overspending. We are placing upon the working capital of the country, a burden of taxation so onerous and so excessive that all classes must be injured and the national progress, vitally retarded, if the load is not made lighter, and avoidance of speculative projects, which can wait for a more convenient season.—Montreal Star.

Saturday last, the governors in several states where labor strikes are in progress took prompt measures towards having a sufficient military force at hand, where there was danger of violence or destruction to life and property—to treat the lawbreakers and would be murderers to doses of cold lead. That is the best and most effective way to deal with rioters. It never failed. When Napoleon in the streets of Paris blew a few hundreds of such creatures from the muzzles of his guns, and treated their followers with several rounds of grapeshot, the French Reign of Terror of the 18th Century was at an end. The labor unions will find that they cannot run the country. The free and open shop must come.—News and Comment.

It is not strange that there is dissatisfaction with the doings of Congress. When the Senate Committee, for instance on the tariff bill, coolly puts a duty of thirty cents on a bushel of wheat and twenty cents on a bushel of corn, thus increasing their cost to the consumer. They ought to know that it will be resented in case these items are in the law when the bill is passed. But that is not all, such things go far to shake our confidence in the man we elect to office.—Comment.

This Congress has played into the hands of the profiteers right along. Nothing has been done to lower the cost of living and bring back the country to normal conditions. It voted to take off the surtaxes which only affect the very rich—the millionaires. Of course it has reduced the running expenses of the government from war times as any Congress would have done, but not near so much as could have been done if we take the word of such leading statesmen as Bosh and Underwood, who ought to know what they are talking about.—A Citizen.

Of all the schemes for raising money by taxation, the best that has been proposel is an expense tax. That is a tax on the basis of what one spends per annum. This should not be computed on an amount less than $1,500. Thus it will will be seen that it would not touch the poorer classes of the people but would be felt only by those who are spending hundreds of dollars, in many cases foolishly, and are able to pay it. They could not shift the burden on to the consumer as in a sales tax. A tax based on sales would be a very unpopular measure for the burden would fall entirely upon the consumer in increased prices to much more than the amount of the tax. An expense tax looks sound "from the road," and would be no burden. Luxuries and wastefulness in general should pay the taxes, thrift and economy should be encouraged.—Comment.

MALE AND FEMALE FARMERS IN UNITED STATES

Of the 6,448,366 farmers in the United States 6,186,813 are male and 261,553 (4.1 per cent.) are female, according to one of The World Almanac census summaries.

Of the owner-farmers 3,737,326 are males, 187,769 females; of the managers 67,762 are male, 763 female; of the tenant farmers 2,381,725 are male and 73,021 female.

Of the total farm acreage males operate 929,878,145 acres; females 25,798,400 acres.

Of the 2,454,746 tenant farmers (1920) 1,117,730 tilled on shares; 561,005 (in the South) were "croppers;" 127,834 were on share-cash basis; 480,027 were cash tenants and 104,987 (in the South) were standing renters. Tenant farmers in 1910 numbered 2,354,676.

Native white farmers were 76.3 per cent. of all farmers in 1920, as against 75 per cent. in 1910; foreignborn white farmers were 9 per cent., as against 10.5 per cent. in 1910; colored farmers 14.7 per cent., as against 14.5 per cent.

Firestone

GUM-DIPPED CORDS

~and Their High Mileage Records

The high mileage records of Firestone Cords continue to emphasize the fact that Firestone methods are different and better. These records, steadily increasing in number and in mileage totals, justify the Firestone contention that there is one best way to build tires.

Among the primary sources of Firestone extra mileage is double gum-dipping—the saturation of the cord plies in a vat of liquid gum,—thus coating each cord and virtually eliminating internal heat and friction.

Another is Firestone air bag curing, with its 200 pound pressure, which places every cord accurately and equalizes the tension.

By blending the rubbers of different plantations and types, and by tempering it before mixing, Firestone men add still more mileage.

Many cord tires are good—a few are better—Firestone users say one is best.

Those who have already experienced Firestone mileage, have stopped shopping and experimenting—they have made these cords standard equipment. Investigate your friends' success with Firestone Cords—and buy your next tire accordingly. Come in and get your share of extra mileage.

A decided interest is growing in the use of lime to sweeten our granite soils and this promises much for future growers. At the same time it may be well to hold in mind the distinction between the two grades on the market. One is the product of the lime kilns and is known as caustic or burned lime and the other is the carbonate of lime which comes from shells, marl, marble, bones and limestone. 100 pounds of pure limestone burned will make 56 pounds of quick lime and if 18 pounds of water are added we have 74 pounds of slaked or hydrated lime. An objection to this on the port of some is its caustic effect in handling and in the soil. For this reason the carbonate is preferred.

One of our young farmers says that; to his surprise, where he sowed lime the clover came the next season in abundance. It is time for Maine to wake to a realizing sense of the saving power of lime. It balances the soil and makes possible the services of the millions of bacteria therein, something not possible if the lime is lacking. It's a simple lesson but is must be heeded.

Mother—Has Your Child These Symptoms?

Mothers, watch children for symptoms of internal disorders. Look at your child NOW! Is his breath offensive and tongue coated? Does he grind his teeth or start in his sleep? Is his appetite changeable? Has he occasionnal griping pains? Is he constipated?

These are some symptoms of worms. Great distress often results from these parasites. Relieve him quickly with Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller—purely vegetable—first prescribed by an old-fashioned Maine country doctor 71 years ago. Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, purifies the bowels as it clears them. A favorite of careful mothers for four generations. Corrects constipation in young and old. 40c, 60c, $1.20.

WHAT CAUSES GAS ON THE STOMACH?

It is caused by fermenting, sour waste matter in the intestines. This old, foul matter should be thoroughly cleaned out with simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka. This acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel, removing old accumulated matter you never thought was in your system. Adler-i-ka relieves ANY CASE gas on the stomach EXCELLENT for sour stomach and chronic constipation. Guards against appendicitis. Frank Kimball, Druggist.

Proved Friend in Need States Maine Woman

Mrs. Palmer Says It Only Took A Few Bottles of Tanlac to Restore Her To Health Completely.

"Tanlac has certainly been a friend in need to me," said Mrs. Sadie Palmer, 55 Haskell St., Westbrook, Maine.

"I had a bad attack of the 'flu' and nearly had pneumonia. After that I could not regain any strength and my appetite was so bad I could only force down a few mouthfuls a day. In addition to this, rheumatism caused me constant suffering, with pains in my sides, chest and under the shoulder blades. I went to the country, hoping the air would help me, but came back as run down as ever.

"Well, it only took a few bottles of this wonderful medicine to build me up until I feel like a different person, for my rheumatism and other pains have left me and I have gained a great deal in weight. I will always give Tanlac the highest praise."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

TRIBUTE TO THE MEMORY OF LILLIAN RUSSELL

(Our Departed Lillian)

Queen of Beauty, Queen of Song,
Alas asleep so everlasting long.
Your passing caused sorrow deep and wide,
In solemn reverence none their grief could hide.
Fields of flowers from heart-broken friends,
Tributes of Love—can these make amends?
Comfort us with a message from Spirit Land,
That Caruso and Patti offered a helping hand.
At the golden gates of Saint Paul and Peter,
Say your Heavenly voice ne'er was more sweeter.
And Christ in all His Spiritual glory,
Gave ear to your blessed life's story.

CHAS. HEIDELBERGER.

SOMETHING FOR NOTHING

Barnum declared that the people liked to be humbugged and every day brings fresh evidence of the truth of his statement. A man from somewhere, known to nobody in the East, advertised from a room on one of the best streets of Boston to deliver day-old chicks for $12 a hundred and raked in more than thirty-five thousand dollars before any one realized that it is well to look before taking a jump.

Then they found the room empty, the bird flown and all mail forwarded to a western city. It is all right to cry out for a fraud order from the government but the bird has gone and there were no chicks or money left on the sidewalk.

Getting something for nothing never did nor never will prove a profitable operation and there is little sympathy for the losers. If one wants anything in this word it is better to go to realiable dealers, pay a fair price and be able to fix responsibility. The sharpers are out after the suckers and will be so long as they bite.—Maine Farmer.

STARS OF THE SUMMER NIGHT

A romantic old song by the above title will be familiar to many persons. It has expressed the feeling of many young people, who used to sit out under the starlight, alone or in company with their sweethearts, and dream of love and ambition, and all the ends that look good to youth.

There used to be a lot of astronomy study, some of it with a sentimental background, yet most of it representing a wholesome interest in the heavenly firmament. It is an elevating and uplifting diversion. The people who sit out in the summer night tracing the various constellations, must have their minds enlarged by the sense of the vastness of the universe, and the marvelous power of the force that created it and keeps it going.

There is a quieting influence in those silent and wheeling stars that has softened many rough places. They suggest that there are forces underneath us capable of upholding all our life, and that we fret too much with our own petty affairs.

WATERFORD

Radcliffe Chautauqua

Every person is boosting the Chautauqua to be held here on July 17th, 18th and 19th. Course tickets are selling rapidly and the thirty-two guarantors and committee feel this event will prove, not altogether a season of entertainment, but one of wholesome instruction and betterment. Friends will gather in the big tent to be erected on the common at Waterford Flat and the three days will prove a regular old home gathering.

The ladies of the Congregational church will serve a supper on the afternoon of the second day. The low price for tickets should attract a large patronage.

Chautauqua is uplifting and brings into a community new and inspiring thought something to remain long after the tent and assistants have departed.

Camp Site Ready For Tourists

The Norway Board of Trade, through a committee, has completed for tourists a camping ground on the Klain farm, formerly the Harry Stimson place. Located in a pine grove by the side of the concrete highway and less than a mile and a half from the center of the village, the spot is ideal.

A cook house has been put up, containing a stove donated by Dr. Harry P. Jones; toilets for men and women, and rubbish cans so the place may be kept clean. The spring of pure cold water has been cleaned and the brick well filled to avoid danger. Tile has been put in so running water can be had. A cover protects against surface contamination.

A supply of stove wood is near and Morris Klain can furnish any amount desired.

The Little Androscoggin river in a secluded spot a few rods away is safe for bathing. A number of tourists have enjoyed a dip in the "swimming hole" after a long ride and appreciate the opportunity for old time sport.

The Board of Trade will feature the camping ground and have five attractive sign boards 5x6 feet for locations along the highway from Portland. Probably Fryeburg will be chosen for another vantage point.

New York tourists who made camp Sunday for several days, have this to say, "This is the best camp site we have struck since leaving our native state, and will stop right here until the last minute."

With stores, postoffice, garages, movie theatre and long distance communication within three minutes run, the spot should flourish and become one of the most popular camp grounds on the White Mountain trail.

DAIRY FEED

A new policy of selling dairy feed on an open formula with a statement of the ingredients used and the exact amounts of each ingredient, will be adopted by the Eastern States Farmers' Exchange. This announcement comes on the heels of the conference of New England dairy feed and nutrition experts representing the various New England colleges, which was held under the auspices of the Eastern States Farmers' Exchange a short time ago. This policy of making known the amount of each ingredient contained in a bag of dairy ration will have far reaching effects and will to a large degree eliminate the haphazard feeding methods and the unsatisfactory results of improper home mixing.

With the open formula the farmer can figure out for himself what it costs to make up the ration. There is nothing concealed regarding the actual value of the ration as a milk producer. The farmer can detect at a glance if there are cheap feeds or fillers used and how much of it has been used. With the open formula he can figure out for himself the actual value of the ration based on the current market of the ingredients used and can tell if the margin which is added for mixing, merchandising cost and profit is exhorbitant.

Howard W. Selby, manager of the Eastern States Farmers' Exchange in announcing the new policy said, "This important step which the Eastern States Farmers' Exchange is taking, is but another move on the part of the organization to bring about fair dealing and better business methods for the protection of the farmer; it also means closer cooperation with properly constituted agencies in their program of fostering better feeding practices. Equal emphasis is being placed by this organization on putting into operation a plan for the most economical distribution of these feeds, at the lowest possible cost. We encourage the purchase of a mixed ration, balanced, with an open formula distributed at lowest possible cost."

Fence Jumpers to be Taken In

Jumping fences to witness ball games is to be made an expensive pastime. The practice has been a popular sport until the Association capped on the lid Thursday with officers and assistants stationed at vantage points along the fence. Several adult jumpers were held up for admission fees, all without the price were escorted from the grounds.

Hereafter the price of a ticket will not satisfy the officers and the law will settle the argument. Ample warning has been given and strict measures will be taken to suppress this method of getting something for nothing.

CASCO

Irene Edwards

Irene Edwards, age 8 years, in June, youngest daughter of Norman and Evelyn Webster Edwards of Maberry Hill, Casco, passed away the evening of July 4th at Webb's Mills.

It was an instantaneous death caused by the explosion of a torpedo which struck her in the heart while she was watching the display of fireworks. She was taken into the home of Clarence Winslow, store keeper of Webb's Mills, and every effort of the doctor and nurses was unavailable in restoring her to life. She was like a child asleep without a thought of pain. Wrapping her little body in a bed spread they took it home, one that had been brightened in the morning by the parents and daughter starting off to celebrate the 4th and returning to it in the evening with one lifeless.

Little Irene was a bright and pretty child and one Mr. Edwards had called his "boy," having five living daughters.

The funeral services were held Friday morning at ten o'clock at the home. Rev. Irving Kemp officiated. Mr. Kemp, who is the rural free delivery man of Casco, took his text, Isaiah 10-11 "He shall gather the lambs with His arms and carry them in His bosom." He said the child was of unusual intelligence and he would miss her running out each day to get the mail from him. She was a pupil of Maberry Hill School and one of the Casco village Sunday school.

The floral tributes were beautiful and many. The bearers were four cousins, Charles, Leland and Dawson Morse and George Savage.

The interment was in South Otisfield cemetery, Maberry Hill.

BETHEL

Bethel Man Speeding

Irving L. Carver, public auto driver was speeding on the Bath road in an attempt to catch the ferry for which he had two passengers Tuesday afternoon, when State Highway Officer Plummer held him up. His car was making better than the rate of 44 miles an hour, it is said. He was arraigned at a special session of the municipal court at 10 o'clock Tuesday night and fined $10 and costs. He felt that as he had two passengers for the ferry, that he had good and sufficient reason for speeding up. He paid and was discharged.

WEST SUMNER

The school committee meeting was at Buckfield. Mr. Vining of Boothbay Harbor was elected as superintendent of schools for Sumner, Hartford, Hebron and Buckfield in place of Mr. Cash, who resigned.

Thayer within a hollow square of small birches dispensed ice cream to an endless line of men, women and children. Cakes of every description and homemade candy were displayed in a booth presided over by Mrs. Clara Bowker, Mrs. Etta Cary and Mrs. Charlotte Hunting, where the sale was brisk.

Aprons both large and samll to fit everybody and cute embroidered overalls for tiny tots were quicky disposed of by Mrs. Evelyn Wait and Mrs. Alta Baker; and the greatest attraction at every sale the mystery booth did such rushing business at the tap of the 8 o'clock bell that Mrs. Alice Wilson Mrs. Melissa Yeaton and Miss Doris Ramsdell were soon at liberty to assist others or mingle with the happy throng.

"I have my Chautauqua ticket. Have you yours?"

The Radcliffe Chautauqua which will be held on the O. H. S. grounds in your town next week for three days beginning Tuesday, is not to benefit any one organization but to benefit you and your town. It is of an educational nature that will reach every man, woman and child. During the war, Oxford went over the top in the Liberty Loan Drives, now, Oxford wake up and let's once more go over the top. Don't say, "Oxford is dull, nothing ever comes here," but when the knock is heard at your door, open it, be interestd, try to help, and take advantage of a good thing when it is right here with you.

Parents should especailly be interested in the Junior department which is for the children. Your boy and girl want to go, make it possible for them. Go with them yourself, you'll enjoy it too. The Junior Worker will be here two days before the Chautauqua opens and she has all kinds of games and amusements for the children, and will also rehearse them for a pageant. Tickets are being circulated around the town, as well as adjoining towns, at very reasonable prices. Now it is up to you to help "go over the top."—Ad.

Finish every day and be done with it. You have done what you could; some blunders and absurdities crept in—forget them as soon as you can. Tomorrow is a new day and you shall begin it well and serenely, and with too high a spirit to be encumbered with your old nonsense.—Emerson.

SOUTH PARIS,

BUILT BETTER
than Cars that Cost More

A careful analysis of the construction and complete equipment of the Light Six will convince you that it has no duplicate in value in the light car class.

For instance, the machining of the crankshaft and connecting rods on all surfaces is a manufacturing practice that is found only on costlier cars.

This particular operation is mainly responsible for the fine balance of the Light-Six motor and its remarkable freedom from vibration at all speeds. It also has an important bearing on the wearing quality of the car and on its long-lived dependable service.

The exceptional values in the Light-Six are possible because practically every part that goes into the car is manufactured complete in the most modern plant in the world. Parts-makers' profits are practically eliminated. Important saving through better methods and bigger volume permit greater value to the buyer.

From the standpoint of shrewd investment you should find out why the Light-Six offers you so much more for your money in performance, service and economy.

WALL PAPERS RETURN

Interest in wall papers appear to be increasing, due undoubtedly to the desire for change which always is manifest on the part of the public. People seem to have tired somewhat of the cold, painted walls which have been so much in vogue for the past few years, and to have turned to the softer finish of the paper. This is due, in a measure, to the present popularity of plain draperies and floor coverings, which are the direct antithesis of the figured hangings and rugs that harmonize so well with the plain wall treatment.

The question of what papers are most in use is a difficult one; there are as many versions as there are wall paper manufacturers. Duotone papers with indefinite designs hardly more than suggested, are much in demand, it is said, and for the really smart house scenic papers that are copied from the old hand-blocked patterns of the last century are used for halls and dining rooms.

In direct contrast are the so-called "fabric" papers with bold designs of birds and flowers in imitation of chintzes and tapestries. These chintz papers make charming bedrooms and in the less pretentious homes may be used with good effect in the living room.

The "flock" paper which bears a strong resemblance to velvet is considered very good when developed in stripes, and if one is looking for something for the studio type of house there are stippled papers that simulate the best paint work.

In colors, all shades of tans and browns are much in demand, it is said, and in this connection it is interesting to note that there is a tendency in the wall paper trade to follow the prevalent color in women's clothes.—Dry Goods Economist.

STATE OF MAINE

County of Oxford, ss.
To the Honorable Board of County Commissioners for the County of Oxford:

The undersigned, taxpayers and inhabitants of the town of Stow, respectfully represent that upon petition of H. S. Emerson and others, dated December 7, 1921, to lay out a town way, the municipal offices of said Stow prepared an article for the town warrant to be acted upon at the regular meeting of the town held the sixth day of March, 1922, to see what action the town of Stow would take in regard to redesignating and establishing the old highway from the Brickett Place, so called, to the Guptill House, so called. The warrant was posted in two conspicuous public places in advance of the town meeting. At the town meeting the inhabitants of said Stow refused to establish the above-mentioned way.

Upon petition of Edwin L. McKeen and others, taxpayers and inhabitants of the town of Stow, the municipal officers of said Stow prepared a warrant stating that a special town meeting was to be called to see what action the town of Stow would take in regard to the laying out of the highway from the Brickett House to the Guptill House. This petition was dated April 3, 1922, and the warrant was posted in two conspicuous public places in advance of the special town meeting, which was held on April 15, 1922. The inhabitants of said Stow refused to lay out the above-mentioned way, whereby the undersigned inhabitants were aggrieved and present this petition and they therefore pray that after due notice and proceedings had by you, you may lay out a town way as asked for in the original petition, a copy of which is attached hereto now on file with the municipal officers of said Stow.

RULES FOR FORETELLING THE WEATHER

The following rules for foretelling the weather have been complied by The World Almanac from the best official sources here and abroad:

A Rising Barometer

A rapid rise indicates unsettled weather.

A gradual rise indicates settled weather.

A rise with dry air and cold increasing in summer indicates wind from the northward; and if rain has fallen, better weather may be expected.

A rise with moist air and a low temperature indicates wind and rain from the northward.

A rise with southerly indicates fine weather.

A Steady Barometer

with dry air and seasonable temperature indicates a continuance of very fine weather.

Falling Barometer

A rapid fall indicates stormy weather.

A rapid fall with westerly wind indicates stormy weather from the northward.

A fall with a northerly wind indicates storm, with rain and hail in summer, and snow in winter.

A fall with increased moisture in the air, and heat increasing, indicates wind and rain from the southward.

A fall with dry air and cold increasing in winter indicates snow.

A fall after very calm and warm weather indicates rain with squally weather.

The barometer rises for northerly winds including from northwest by north to the eastward for dry, or less wet weather, for less wind, or for more than one of these changes, except on a few occasions, when rain, hail or snow comes from the northward with strong wind.

The barometer falls for southerly wind including from southeast by south to the westward, for wet weather, for stronger wind or for more than one of these changes, except on a few occasions, when moderate wind, with rain or snow, comes from the northward.

The Almanac contains much other weather data, revised yearly, including temperature and rainfall ables for New York City and for every important State and city in the United States and all over the globe.

Weather Wisdom

A gray, lowering sunset, or one where the sky is green or yellowish green, indicates rain. A red sunrise, with clouds lowering later in the morning, also indicates rain. A halo occurring after fine weather indicates a storm. A corona growing smaller indicates rain; growing larger, fair weather. A morning rainbow is regarded as a sign of rain; an evening rainbow, of fair weather. A deep-blue color of the sky, even when seen through clouds, indicates far weather, a growing whiteness, an approaching storm. Fogs indicate settled weather. A morning fog usually breaks away before noon. Unusual clearness of the atmosphere, unusual brightness or twinkling of the stars, indicate rain. The first frost and last frost are usually preceded by a temperature very much above the mean.

BEAUTIFY THE FARM HOME

Farming unlike any other business centers around the farmers' home. The farm and the home are so closely related that the general appearance of the home itself may sometimes be regarded as an indication of the efficiency of the farm enterprise.

In any instances both the design and the position of the farm buildings may not coincide with our modern ideas regarding the construction and the relation of one farm building to another. This is no excuse, however, for any lack of effort in making every farm, and especially the farm home, as neat and attractive as possible.

One of the first steps to be taken in to remove from all buildings any worn-out equipment or materials for which there is no longer any use. Such materials may be sold for junk. Give all buildings a thorough cleaning out. Have a place for all farm tools and equipment and see that everything is in its place when not in use.

The next step might be to clean up the farm yard and grounds around the farm house. Collect all the rubbish, pieces of lumber, etc., and burn them up if there is no better way of disposing of them.

The farm yard and especially the land around the farm home, should have sufficient drainage. There is nothing more unsightly about the farm home and buildings than mud, especially during the winter months. Good drainage and properly constructed drives or walks will overcome this difficulty in most cases.

A good lawn is perhaps the most important factor in beautifying the farm home. It should be large enough to give a good setting for the house. Large open spaces with borders made irregular by skilful planting of trees and shrubs will produce a pleasing effect.

The inormal planting of trees, shrubs and flowers in a natural manner according to a well-developed plan will add a great deal to the attractiveness of any rural home. Provision should be made for the planting of some shade trees in the farm yard and about the farm home not only for their shade and beauty but also as a protection from cold winds. The informal planting of shrubs adds greatly to the naturalistic effect which it is desirable to secure in connection with rural homes. Hardy perenials and annuals may also be used to advantage.

The native shrubs and trees may be used with much better effect about the farm homes than many of the finest expensive varieties.

A coat of paint every few years helps to keep the property neat and in good condition.

The farm home like every other home should be pleasant and attractive for all those that live in it. Improvements such as are suggested above not only make farm homes attractive but add a great deal to their monetary value.

ANDOVER

Death of Former Andover Man

Police Lieutenant Henry F. Jordan, who died on July 7 at his home in Lynn, Mass., was born at Andover, June 13, 1842 and served in the Civil War as sergeant with the 10th and 32d Maine Regiments. He was wounded several times.

After the war he went to Lynn and was employed as a foreman in one of the shoe factories there. He was an ex-member of the Lynn city council. In 1888 he was appointed a policeman and in 1894 was raised to the grade of lieutenant. Lieut. Jordan was retired May 5, 1911.

He was a member of Mt. Carmel Lodge of Masons and of Gen. Lander Post, 5, G. A. R. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Effie Jordan.

The funeral took place Monday with services at 2 o'clock at his home, 8 Chestnut Street, Lynn.

EAT TO LIVE

One of the blessings of later day developments is that men are learning to eat to live. Especially is this the case with the farmers. Instead of relying on the peddler's cart for a steady meat supply we are learning that better health and strength will follow a more generous vegetable diet. This may be the newer system of nutrition but it certainly must claim our attention more and more.

The violent deaths and frequent shocks are largely to be attributed to the generous use of meat and small amount of vegetables. Given a fair-sized run for the pigs and hens with plenty of green food and sows to supply abundance of milk, any farmer has in these, and in his garden, the very best food possible, that will build tissue and preserve health. The more vegetables on the table daily the smaller the doctor's bills.—Maine Farmer.

CASCO

A most delightful shower was given to Miss Isadora Bounds at the home of Mrs. H. E. Perry of Casco Village; both laries were beautifully dressed in white and the floral decorations were white roses. About fifty ladies were in attendance and the elaborate presents suggested more of a wedding reception than a shower.

Ice cream and cake were served in form by young ladies and the punch from the punch bowl by Miss Marjorie Mayberry. The Leach orchestra furnished music throughout the evening assisted by Almon Waterhouse, violinist of Poland Corner. Miss Isadora Bounds accompanied by Mrs. Perry gave one of her vocal solos.

After the guests had taken their departure, Miss Bounds accompanied by Dayton Boyker, Herman Cook and H. E. Perry and family went to Naples where Miss Bounds and Mr. Boyker were united in marriage by Rev. Mr. Lyman. They then visited Uncle Herman Cook at Cooks Mills for a short time after which they left for their new home in Poland.

PORTER

Damaged By Fire

The barn, store and dwelling of Jens Johansen in this village were destroyed by fire Saturday night causing a loss estimated at $3,500. Mr. Johansen went into the barn with a lighted lantern. Gasoline stored there took fire, the flames spreading rapidly through the barn. There were a few men at the store at the time and they joined Mr Johansen in an effort to save articles in the store and dwelling, which were connected with the barn. So rapidly did the fire spread tha they were able to save but little. Had it not been for the heavy shower of the afternoon which wet the roofs of buildings in the village it is probable that several buidings in the village would also have been destroyed. Bucket brigades were formed, and other property was thus protected.

Mr. Johansen came to Porter about a year ago and had built up a promising business. The loss is keenly felt by him, as he carried but little insurance. He was badly burned on the face and arms by the bursting of the flames when the gasoline caught fire.

WAS A BROKEN-DOWN WOMAN

Then I Began Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Medicines

Donaldsonville, La.—"I write with pleasure to praise your medicine—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—which has done so much to restore my health. I was a broken-down woman until my husband brought me a bottle of your Vegetable Compound and one of Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine. I had been having pains every month and at intervals between, was weak and seemed to be smothering at times, but in a week I felt like another woman. I also used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. It did me a lot of good too. I cannot praise your medicines too much and will be more than glad to recommend them to any woman who is suffering from female troubles. You may print my testimonial, as it is true."—Mrs. T. A. LANDRY, 612 Miss. St., Donaldsonville, La.

Note Mrs. Landry's words—"as it is true." Every letter recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is genuine. It is a statement telling the merits of these medicines just as the women in your own neighborhood tell each other about them. For fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has sold on merit.

What Water Does for Batteries

Not too much or too little—but just the right quantity of water ought to be kept in your battery all the time.

The water does two things: it keeps the battery solution over the tops of the plates so that the whole plate surface is used; and it gives proper strength of solution.

Don't hesitate to ask us for water service even if yours isn't a Willard Battery. The Willard Standards of Service are the same for every make.

MAKE YOUR HOME COZY AND WARM EVEN ON THE COLDEST WINTER NIGHTS

Through the chill of the first fall frosts; through the bleakest of winter days and nights when the snow is deep and the wind howls; and on into spring when the chill of melting snow still lingers in the air—the Andes will give you perfect heat comfort.

Not only will an Andes keep your home cozy and warm, but it will also save fuel money.

The Andes System One Pipe Furnace is really a remarkable heating system. It begins with the money you save when you first buy it, for, compared to other heating systems, it is a very inexpensive furnace to buy.

Woodstock A. C. secured revenge for their 4-3 defeat two weeks ago, by defeating Bethel last Saturday 8-3. There was a fine pitcher's battle for eleven innings with Morse having a shade the better of it. W. A. C. led until the ninth, when Bethel tied the count. The tenth frame was scoreless, but in the eleventh, three solid hits combined with several errors, gav Woodstock five runs and the game. The odd game of the series is to be played at Bryant Pond, August 5, and should prove to be a tight battle.
